

Little Poss Appeal

7-13 June 2010

Epilepsy Queensland needs YOUR support!

Can you help us?

Epilepsy Queensland invites you to be a part of this year's Little Poss Appeal by selling merchandise.

This is a simple, yet meaningful and fun way for staff and customers to help bring epilepsy out of the shadows.

All stock is sent on consignment (sale or return) and includes pens, yoyos, wristbands and badges.

Little Poss Appeal is held during Queensland's annual epilepsy awareness campaign and is named after Epilepsy Queensland's mascot. Little Poss is a possum with epilepsy that helps children learn how to deal with seizures, medication, teasing and school work. The Appeal not only raises much needed funds for support and services but also increases the awareness and understanding of epilepsy in the community.

What you will receive by 1 June —

- Compact display box with merchandise
- Point of sale poster
- Little Poss stickers for your staff to wear
- Information on returning unsold merchandise and banking options
